

The benefits of a SHY Blind should not be overlooked

When a major financial institution wanted to ensure the complete privacy of its conference room from surrounding buildings they were quick to call on IBS Ltd who were even quicker to call SHY.

Now all that prying eyes can do is admire the array of superbly constructed, electrically operated SHY blinds. Incorporating the clever SHY Zip Screen system, high spec black-out material and fool proof group control, nothing escapes them. Security is complete.

Whatever the complexity of your job don't overlook the help SHY can give.
